For those yearning for a change of scenery, having a hard time finding space for solace, or just needing a creative outlet, Solo Wanderings, self-guided retreats may provide a welcome respite. Abundant materials, detailed instructions, beverages and a snack will be ready for you to spend the day at The Stable in Durham – on a solo, hands-on, creative journey. No art experience required!

IMPORTANT NOTE: A 72 hr. safety buffer between all Solo Wanderings (the time the CDC says the corona virus can live on surfaces) is standard protocol. A thorough cleaning prior to your arrival and after your departure will be performed.

Claudia Fulshaw, the proprietor of The Stable, a private retreat venue in Durham, NC, will welcome and orient you upon arrival, face mask on! She is a graphic designer, artist, and long-time wanderer who has been leading creative retreats for over 20 years. Claudia is passionate about allowing folks the time and space to discover or uncover their unique “art spirits.”
